

Accessibility & Affordability Working Group Member List

AAWG Board Members	Affiliation	Role/Expertise/Advocacy
Maria Bonneville	California Institute for Regenerative Medicine	Vice Chair of the ICOC, Governing Board of CIRM
Kim Barrett	University of California, Davis	ICOC Member
Dan Bernal	University of California, San Francisco	ICOC Member, Patient Advocate – HIV/AIDS
David Higgins	Michael J. Fox Foundation (formerly Parkinson’s Action Network)	ICOC Member, Patient Advocate – Parkinson’s Disease
Vito Imbasciani	California Institute for Regenerative Medicine	Chair of the ICOC, Governing Board of CIRM
Pat Levitt	Children's Hospital, Los Angeles	ICOC Member
Adriana Padilla	Community Medical Providers	ICOC Member, Patient Advocate, Type II Diabetes
AAWG Members	Affiliation	Role/ Expertise/Advocacy
Ann Boynton	University of California. Davis Medical Center	Representative from hospitals in California that are participating in stem cell clinical trials or FDA approved stem cell or genetic therapy
James DeBenedetti	Covered California	An expert or a highly knowledgeable individual with experience in California's public insurance program (Covered California), and the process for reimbursement of innovative therapies
Dana Dornsife	Lazarex Cancer Foundation	Representative from a philanthropic organization who has experience assisting patients with clinical trial access and affordability

Ted Goldstein	Independent Consultant	Individual with private sector experience in innovative therapy medical coverage terms, qualifications and the process for reimbursement
Darius Lakdawalla	University of Southern California	A health care economist, with experience in advising or negotiating with private insurers, government insurers, or corporate self-insurance programs on coverage for innovative therapies or human trials, including experience in assisting hospitals and clinics in covering financial gaps in coverage of the direct and indirect costs of innovative therapies
Harlan Levine	City of Hope	Patient navigator with training and experience helping patients obtain financial support from private insurers, public support or nonprofit support and helping patients obtain social service support
Ammar Qadan	Cepheid	Expert in federal therapy coverage, qualifications, and process for reimbursement and if possible, Medicare and Medicaid
Maheswari Senthil	University of California, Irvine	Representative from hospitals in California that are participating in stem cell clinical trials or FDA approved stem cell or genetic therapy

Adrienne Shapiro	Axis Advocacy	Representative from patient advocacy organizations with experience in coverage, qualifications, and reimbursement of innovative therapies.
Christina Hartman	Orchard Therapeutics	A representative from patient advocacy organizations with experience in coverage, qualifications, and reimbursement of innovative therapies.